Amendments to the Specification:

Please replace the paragraph beginning at page 24, line 18, with the following rewritten paragraph:

One example of the available key word tables may be as shown in FIG. 5. A key word table 80 includes three predetermined three key words (“Urgent” 51, “Congratulation” 52, and “Get married” 53) and a single key mark (“Hart-Mark” 54) and four sets of predetermined background images (“image 1” 61, “image 2” 62, “image 3” 63, and “image 4” 64) and predetermined effective sounds (“effective sound 1” 81, “effective sound 2” 82, “effective sound 3” 83, and “effective sound 4” 84) in correspondence with the three key words and the single key mark. If the first key word “urgent” 51 is detected by the device, then the device displays the predetermined background image 1 61 with or without replaying the predetermined effective sound 1 81. If the second key word “congratulation” (52) is detected by the device, then the device displays the predetermined background image 2 (62) with or without replaying the predetermined effective sound 2 (82). If the third key word “get married” 53 is detected by the device, then the device displays the predetermined background image 3 (63) with or without replaying the predetermined effective sound 3 (83). If the first key mark “♡” 54 is detected by the device, then the device displays the predetermined background image 4 (64) with or without replaying the predetermined effective sound 4 (84).
